

Credit by Exam

When: November 19-21, 2008

You must sign up by October 23, 2008 for us to order your exam.

Where: Register in the counseling office beginning Oct. 16, 2008

Cost: $30.00 per half credit

More Information: Credit by exam is offered for students who plan to accelerate by gaining credit through successfully mastering an exam for a particular subject area (such as Spanish). It is also offered for students who have failed a class with a 60 or greater or did not receive credit due to excessive absences. Tests are ordered through Texas Tech University. Study guides are available for review at <http://www.depts.ttu.edu/ode/cbereview/>

Mastery criteria: A student planning to accelerate without receiving prior instruction must score at least 90% on the exam to gain credit. A student who has received instruction but did not receive credit due to a failing grade or absences must score at least 70% to gain credit for the class. If credit is earned, the District shall enter the examination score on the student's transcript. Credit by exam will not be used in averaging the student's GPA.
